5. NEW BUSINESS/DISCUSSION ITEM

a. ODOT I-205 Toll Project

Major points were as follows:

- Three representatives from ODOT, Lucinda Broussard, Matt Dolata, and Jennifer Rabby were in attendance to provide an update on the I-205 Tolling Project.
- Ms. Broussard said they would be talking about a better understanding of the I-205 Toll Project and upcoming work, what the key problems they should be trying to address, and how they can make it a successful and equitable tolling program.
- Ms. Broussard said that House Bill 2017, "Keep Oregon Moving", is what got this project moving.

- Ms. Broussard talked about how tolling would work and how it would be all electronic.
- Ms. Broussard said the benefits of tolling are improved travel time and increased reliability, reduced greenhouse gas emissions and fuel consumption, sustainable funding for investments, and strategies and investments to advance equity and mobility.
- Ms. Broussard said they don't know yet how much tolling will cost, but you will know the price before you get on the road.
- Ms. Broussard said tolling will pay for UMO core improvement projects, transit and multimodal transportation options, neighborhood health and safety, and people experiencing low-income.
- Ms. Broussard shared a timeline of when tolling would start. She went through the steps of the Equity Framework.
- Ms. Rabby went through the disciplinarys that will be studied for the tolling project.
- Mr. Dolata went through the details on how they are going to do the transportation analysis. He said there are three levels of this modeling.
- Mr. Dolata said the area of potential impact is where they will focus the analysis on.

b. Oregon City Connector Shuttle

Major points were as follows:

- John Lewis talked about the Clackamas County Connects Shuttle Service. Mr. Lewis shared the Clackamas County Webpage with information about the shuttle service, including the routes and the schedules.

6. COMMUNICATION

7. FUTURE AGENDA ITEM

- Mr. Atkinson would like to advise the City Commission of the TAC's stance on the I-205 Tolling Project.
