Summer Reading Theme, Challenges, and Activity Brianstorm

This year's theme for Summer Reading is, "Level Up At Your Library" Teens will be able to participate via Beanstack, with a BINGO Card. TAC agreed that keeping the BINGO card is a good idea, as it's something we have done previously, and patrons are used to it.

There was discussion on how teens might be able to win prizes throughout the summer rather than waiting at until the end for the grand prize drawings. This would be in addition to everyone getting a prize when they finish 5 in a row and a blackout bingo card. Sabrina will be researching other possible ways to win prizes, using Beanstack and will report back to TAC in March.

Programs and Prizes

Sabrina is working on a book list for this year's book prize, when patrons sign up for summer reading. This will be done electronically so that TAC can vote on which books they want to see as the prizes this year. It was suggested that the first 100 registered for teen summer reading should get a tote, as it might help encourage more people to participate. Sabrina is working on a list of books for TAC to vote on this year's free book prize when patrons sign up for Summer Reading.

Summer Reading Event Brainstorm

OCPL will offer Book Subscription boxes again this summer for teens.
